Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the [position title] role at [company name]. I am a banking and wealth management professional with over nine years of experience across client onboarding, KYC and customer due diligence, AML escalations, fraud and card operations and the servicing of High Net Worth and affluent clients. I hold a Swiss B permit and am based in Zurich, so I require no employer sponsorship.

In my most recent role as Chief Manager at IndusInd Bank, I managed relationships with affluent and High Net Worth clients while supporting KYC verification, remediation and periodic refresh activities. That work involved reviewing customer information and supporting documentation, resolving gaps in Source of Funds and Source of Wealth files, and supporting PEP and sanctions screening, UBO verification and FATCA/CRS requirements. Where customer activity or documentation warranted further review, I escalated it to the appropriate compliance and AML teams. Across earlier roles at HDFC Bank and at Axis Bank, where I rose from Assistant Manager to Deputy Manager, I built the same strengths over a broader product range covering deposits, lending, investments, insurance, foreign exchange and digital banking.

I have recently strengthened my regulatory grounding for the Swiss market through the SAQ-recognised AMLA/AMLO-FINMA 2025 training on the prevention of money laundering, and through the Basel Institute on Governance course on combating terrorism financing, alongside further certifications in risk management and AML/KYC for banking and insurance.

What I would bring to [company name] is a client-facing compliance perspective: I am used to obtaining difficult documentation directly from customers and to coordinating between Operations, Compliance and Fraud teams to close cases properly rather than quickly. I would welcome the chance to discuss how that experience fits your team.

Yours sincerely,

Moumita Dey
